

DC/LA 2000 Super Conference Research Survey

Conducted in cooperation with Huntington College's Link Institute...for faithful & effective youth ministry

You can help them a lot by taking a few minutes to fill out the following survey and then looking for one of our top-notch research specialists (they actually just collect these papers from you!) If you do decide to help out, please be sure to take a few extra minutes when you answer the following questions by following instructions and filling in the circles that represent your answers completely.
